

STANDARD CRIMINAL 3

STIPULATIONS

The lawyers are permitted to stipulate that certain facts exist. This means that both sides agree those facts do exist and are part of the evidence.

SOURCE: RAJI (Criminal) No. 3 (1996).